"Which one of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Luke 10:25-37 "Rabbi, why do Jews always answer a question with a question?" The rabbi responded, "And why shouldn't we?" Jesus is a Jew. When the scholar of the (Jewish) law asked him, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered with a question, "What is written in the law?" The scholar quotes Deuteronomy 6:5 You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, being, strength and mind and Leviticus 19:19 ...and your neighbor as yourself. The scholar knew the law. It had been handed down by Moses. But the scholar (a lawyer) looks for a loophole: "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus answers this question with the story of the Good Samaritan, then ask, "Which one, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robber's victim?" The scholar answers, "The one who treated him with mercy." The scholar had no other choice. If we are true believers in Jesus, neither do we. Jesus challenges us to want for our neighbor what we want ourselves. And everyone is our neighbor, no matter how unlovable they may be.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Next weekend is the 40th anniversary of our July mission collection. We went to Peru in the early 1960's, but in 1970, Bishop McAuliffe asked the people of the diocese if they would personally support the missions there. The response then, and ever since, was a resounding yes.

The mission history of our small Diocese has been exemplary. At one point we had ten priests in Peru. Even though we have no priests today actively ministering in Peru, we remain remarkably involved in parish support and innovative pastoral programs. Your prayers and sacrificial gifts to sustain the work of our missions are simply amazing.

We are not finished. We need to maintain our outreach to the Quechua of the altiplano and the earthquake victims of Pisco. We need your help to feed hundreds of children, to provide life-saving healthcare, and to offer community and hope to the poor living with HIV-AIDS.

With that first collection, the Peru Missions became a personal ministry. Today, the Church that we build and the lives that we touch through our missionary efforts in Peru and Latin America depend entirely on what you are willing to give.

For 40 years, we have had a mission tradition of kindness and commitment. I pray that continues next weekend as you respond with generous hearts.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
