St. Ann Bazaar is this weekend!

Have you tasted the famous Vince Tardino Spaghetti Dinner the Bazaar has on Saturday?..or the succulent Roast Beef Dinner that is prepared for Sunday afternoon? Both of these dinners are culinary delights!! The many booths offer some wonderful gift ideas for the upcoming holidays. Please stop by the "Country Store" for down home crafty items and "Gifts from the Heart" always has beautiful upscale gifts at purse friendly prices. The "Bakery" will fill your pantry with fresh breads, cookies, cakes and more. Try your best to win a cake at the "Cake Wheel" and don't forget to get your bargains at the "Flea Market"! The St. Ann Bazaar is a great experience.....hope to see you there!!

ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

Next Sunday, Pope Benedict XVI calls every Catholic in the world to celebrate our vocation to be a missionary. It's World Mission Sunday!

As Catholics around the world — here at home and in the Missions — gather at the Eucharist around the table of the Lord, we are to pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work. We pray for those awaiting the "Good News" of our Lord's great love for us and for the missionaries who offer the poor and suffering the light of Christ. And we are to offer financial help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for more than 1,150 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

St. Ann's Parish Council Elections All parishioners of St. Ann Parish, who have been confirmed, are asked to take time next weekend and vote to fill the 5 positions for the 2011-2012 Parish council. Your candidates are: Deborah Cummings, Kay Harding, Mary Kemna, Maggie Smith, Mark Staton and Esther Tardino.

 There is a sheet in the lobby with the candidates' pictures and a brief bio.*

Life Teen Cardboard Box Sleepout

The Life Teens have their 10th Annual Cardboard Box Night on Friday, November 19, 2010. They will spend the night in cardboard boxes and with little comfort.

Our teens goals, are to:

1. Raise awareness of those less fortunate than us.
2. Raise money to help those in Benton County who are suffering.

Please make a pledge to help our Life Teen Group with this worthy cause.

Parish Family Quilt 2011 Is your family represented on one of the quilts in the Parish Hall? If not, please consider being a part of the next Parish Quilt 2011. Next weekend Regina Mackenberg will have quilt squares available, with instructions for those of you who are interested. This is a part of our parish history.

Bishop Gaydos' Letter for World Mission Sunday

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our Lord, before returning to the Father, promised His followers the Holy Spirit and charged them with being His “witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

At Baptism, we too were called to be Christ's witnesses. We are to share our faith with those around us, and to support, in prayer and sacrifice, the work of missionaries who bring the “good News” of Jesus to faraway places – to Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and remote regions of Latin America.

On World Mission Sunday, celebrated this year on October 24, the Catholics of the world unite at Mass to recommit ourselves to this Baptismal vocation to be missionaries. As we pray and respond here at home, we are doing what every Catholic is doing in every parish and chapel in every corner of the globe. Your generosity through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith will reach those who await the “Good News” of Jesus, who long to experience His hope and love.

More than 1,150 young churches in the Developing World count on your generous response this World Mission Sunday. Please also continue to pray that all of us may be the eager and effective witnesses of Jesus He asked us to be.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

John R. Gaydos

Most Reverend John R. Gaydos

Bishop of Jefferson City
