A prayer in Thanksgiving
*Thou that has given so much to me,
Give one thing more -- a grateful heart;
Not thankful when it pleases me,
As if Thy blessings had spare days;
But such a heart, whose pulse may be
Thy praise.*

George Herbert

Notes from Fr. Keith 11/21/2010

Thanksgiving conjures many standard images: a roast Turkey with the trimmings, family and friends gathered around a huge table, fallen leaves all over the yard, football on TV, etc. It's a great holiday that touches the best American traditions, a time to look back and be thankful for all we have and this great Country we have to live in.

The first Thanksgiving was a celebration of peace. Unfortunately, it was a rare peace between our ancestors and their Native American neighbors. Thanksgiving should be more than a stopping place, it should be a starting place. I think it should be a time when we try to bridge boundaries, reconcile differences and make peace. Recapturing that ideal moment from our history is more than a re-enactment. It is a goal that all people should come together at table to celebrate blessings in peace and community.
