Have a great 4th of July!

Notes from Fr. Keith, 7/03/2011

This 4th of July weekend is a time to give thanks for everything our wonderful country gives us. The freedoms we enjoy are unique not only in our world today, but in human history.

True Freedom of Religion was not a legal right before our Bill of Rights. Every nation in human history was connected with a Church or a Religion, and although other religions may have been tolerated, they had junior status to the official religion of the state. At the time of America's founding, Catholicism was not officially tolerated in England, who excluded Catholics from government and the Army.

Our country was the first to allow people of every faith equal standing before the law and society. For this, and all the other gifts our Great Country gives us, we should be thankful.
