Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Week of 29/31 2011

In today's Gospel we find an equation the disciples of Jesus couldn't solve: Five loaves and two fish divided by 5,000- plus people. They failed to recognize Jesus in the equation; that whatever they had to offer, Jesus could take it and bless it and satisfy the hunger of the crowd with it. Good stewards recognize that the Lord can work miracles with the gifts they offer to a hungry and broken world. How often are we willing to offer our gifts in faith, even as insignificant as we think they are, and count on the Lord to do the rest? How often do we count Christ into the equation?

Rummage Sale It's time again to begin collecting your treasures for our fall rummage sale which will take place September 8 & 9, 2011. Please be sure all wearing apparel is clean. Unfortunately we cannot accept computers. Small appliances should be in working order, Thank you so much for your contributions which have always been very generous. Ellen Julius & Cecile Smith Chairpersons Altar & Rosary Society does not have a meeting in August. The next meeting is Wed. Sept. 14.

Friday through Sunday, August 26-28, 2011

St. Benedict for "Intermediates." St. Benedict intended The Rule for beginners, and many Christians know something about the monastic principles articulated by Benedict. But how do Christians live out Benedict's advice in contemporary life? Join Fr. Patrick Caveglia and Oblate Michael Smith to move beyond the beginnings to explore new ways of living a prayerful life in the Benedictine spirit. Plenty of opportunities for quiet prayer and reading, as well as time to join the monks for the Liturgy of the Hours and the monastic and seminary communities for the Eucharist. (Suggested donation for lodging, meals, conferences and materials: $135 single room, $110 each with double accommodations)

Notes from Fr. Keith 7/31/2011

The whispers have started: the end of Summer is coming. Actually, they've been more than whispers, if you're in contact with any TV commercial, it's full volume. Labor Day is in sight, but it's still six weeks away. We still have quite a bit of summer to go, and there's still time to savor it.

Many folks believe Christianity focuses solely on the Future, the Kingdom to Come. The Future is important, but our Faith is more than that. The journey of Faith isn't just about the destination, but the journey; how we make this trip is almost as important as the goal. The promise of the Future is a freedom for us: we don't have to worry about what's to come, we know Christ wins in the end and we win with Him. That gives us an important freedom: the freedom to live for today.

Today is always the most important day of our lives. Today is the only day we have any effect on, Today is the only day we're fully part of, Today is our chance to live fully. It doesn't matter where we are or how we feel, we live our lives in Today. And living fully in Today is living in faith, for Christ is always with us in Today, Christ is always part of every Today.
