Day of Reflection, Appreciation, and Training for Catholic Volunteers in Prison & Jail Ministry

Saturday, June 23, 2012 Alphonse J. Schwartz Memorial Catholic Center, Jefferson City, Missouri

Have you ever thought the Lord might be calling you to minister in the name of your faith? Have you ever thought of using your talents in a prison or jail ministry setting? This day is for you. The Diocese of Jefferson City seeks to expand the number of trained Catholic volunteers that go into any one of the eight prisons or the many county jails, located within our Diocesan boundaries. New volunteers will receive a more solid grounding in the teachings and principles of our faith to better prepare them to minister in the Catholic tradition and anchor them more deeply in Catholic spirituality, which gives vibrancy, purpose, and fidelity to our work in prison ministry. There will be time to answer your questions regarding prison ministry, there will be a complimentary luncheon, you will meet seasoned CVPM, and we will give special recognition to those Catholic volunteers who, over many years, have faithfully provided service and ministry to our incarcerated brothers and sisters.

This day will be held on Saturday, June 23, 2012 from 9:30 AM to 3:00 PM at the Alphonse J. Schwartz Catholic Center located at 2207 West Main in Jefferson City. There is no charge for the day, however, REGISTRATION is REQUIRED.
