Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator

Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome— for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us— this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Notes from Fr. Keith, 6/24/2012

The Blood of Christ is what gives us life:

Flowing through our bodies,

Enlivening our hearts.

The Blood of Christ is what calls us together:

Seeking us out,

Bringing us home,

Making us welcome.

The Blood of Christ is what heals us:

Easing our pain,

Embracing our shame,

Restoring our joy.

The Blood of Christ is what keeps us together:

Around a table,

Around a Cross.

The Blood of Christ is what binds us together:

Connecting minds,

Connecting hearts,

Connecting souls.

The Blood of Christ is what transcends all barriers:

Of time,

Of space,

Of distance.

The Blood of Christ is what keeps us together:

Yesterday, Today and Forever.
