December 2, 2012

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During this Year of Faith we begin the glorious time of Advent. It allows us to wait in hope, pray in faith, and approach with awe our God whose love for us came down from heaven to be among us. During this new liturgical year we recall our deep longing to encounter the truth and power of Jesus Christ more and more fully each day. Our meditation during this time allows us to bind our hearts to the humility of the Bethlehem stable praying without ceasing for God to bring peace to the world and to our families. These days also remind us of our commitment to evangelize a troubled world as well as to be faithful to the variety of ways we are called to share with the poor.

I wish you every blessing in the celebration of these Advent weeks. May you know the joy of Christ's presence and promise in all things.

With my best wishes and personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John R. Gaydos

Bishop of Jefferson City
