Pastor's Column for 3/10/2013

We have many ministries that animate our parish family. Have you recently thanked fellow parishioners for this active role in leadership by being involved in one of our ministries? As I am writing this piece, our beautiful choir is practicing. Simply to listen to them is an uplifting experience. As I listen I am mindful of how much they add to our eucharistic celebration. In sharing their gift they help all of us to lift up our voices to our dear Lord.

Maybe next time you are truly aware of how much our musicians and vocalists aid you in our communal prayer, you could express your appreciation by letting them know what a difference they make.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Mike
