for our Masses this weekend.

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month.

According to VIRTUS"Protecting God's Children" training, there are five steps in the plan to Protect God's Children: 1) Know the Warning Signs; 2) Control Access; 3) Monitor All Programs; 4) Be Aware; 5) Communicate Your Concerns. WE can all be part of the solution. According to the VIRTUS"Protecting God's Children" training, one in 10 males and one in five females is abused by the time they are 18. You can be part of the solution through Awareness, Communication and Timely Response. Visit www.virtusonline.org or at <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/child-and-youth-protection/resources/>. To report abuse by someone representing the Catholic Church, contact Mike Berendzed, Jefferson City Diocese Office of

Catholic Home Mission Appeal

April 20-21, 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Four out of every ten dioceses in the United States cannot provide basic pastoral care or provide priestly formation and lay ministry training without outside help. The millions of Catholics who live in these places, called home mission dioceses, rely on your generous support of the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

Prince of Peace Catholic Church in the Diocese of Lexington is the only Catholic presence in two counties. The pastor splits his time between Prince of Peace and St. Julie's, a parish 25 miles away. The difficult travel in Appalachia combined with the economic hardships faced by the people strains the resources of the diocese. Support from the Appeal provides well-trained lay ministers and deacons to attend to the spiritual needs of those in the region and also allows Prince of Peace Parish to maintain a food and clothing bank for those in need.

You may not realize that the Diocese of Jefferson City is also a mission diocese benefitting from this collection. Last year we raised $54,000 in our Home Missions Appeal, but we received a Home Missions grant of $80,000. This money is being used to help us serve the growing Hispanic population in our Diocese. With it, we are strengthening families, developing lay leadership, and reaching out to our new neighbors with pastoral and social assistance.

With your support, the Catholic Home Missions Appeal can continue to provide essential pastoral care in home mission dioceses. Please be generous next weekend and help strengthen the Church at home. Your support will truly make a difference. Thank you.

Sincerely yours in Christ
Most Reverend John R. Gaydos
Bishop of Jefferson City
